ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE:

This process is for finding underlying symmetries of numbers of any magnitude through the use of a two dimensional number line, a resulting number line, a wave form, and grid layout. Then marking these numbers as possessing underlying symmetries therefore leaving the ones not marked on the Kieu Wave Form as Prime numbers of any magnitude.